PVAA FEATURED ARTIST

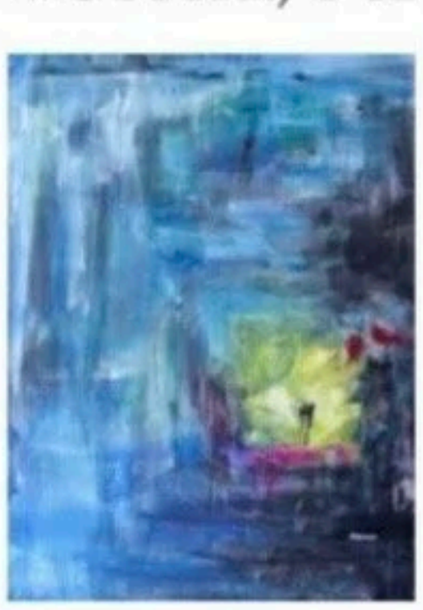

SANDY BROCK

The beauty and wonder of the natural world continually stirs my soul. I am captivated by the quiet conversation between light and shadow—the way morning and evening light transforms ordinary moments into something extraordinary. To me, shadows do not diminish the light; they reveal its beauty and give it meaning.

My work is an intuitive exploration of light, color, and emotion. Rather than depicting a place or object, I seek to capture an experience—a fleeting sense of peace, hope, or remembrance. Through layered acrylics and expressive marks, I invite viewers into spaces where beauty is discovered, emotion is honored, and light quietly emerges.

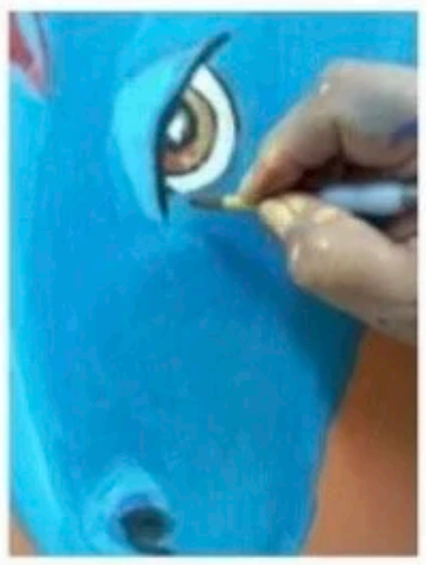

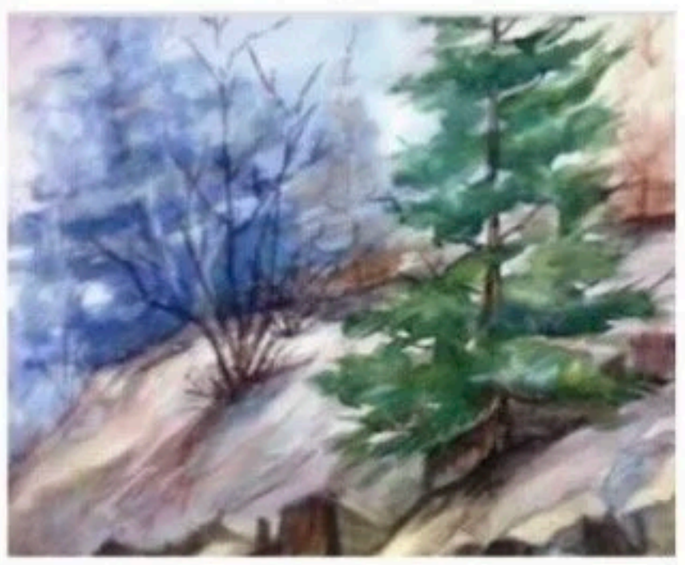

Longtime Member is Exhibiting at Claremont's Some Crust Bakery

PVAA Gallery SOHO partners with Some Crust Bakery to share art with the Claremont community. ARLENE MORENO has been a member of PVAA for 25 plus years as well as other local art associations.

Through September Arlene will be the 'Some Crust' featured artist displaying twelve of her artworks. You will see some large watercolor paintings, as well as a few mixed media. She has included photos of Yosemite Edge, Wildfire Heroes, and in progress, a Blue Horse and Grizzly Sushi.
